A special meeting of the Fellowship was called for this date and was held in two sessions to present the draft of a Member's Handbook. There were approximately 24 members at the morning session and 5 at the afternoon. The representative from the Fellowship's major funder, Ontario Senior Active Living Centre was present for both sessions.

Board chair, Wendy Quarrington, together with Board members Ian Moffat and Susan Brown presented the draft handbook and emphasized the importance of members' active involvement in the Fellowship. The prime funding is based on members' involvement and participation in running the activities. It was reiterated that it is necessary to ensure that programs run by the Fellowship meet the funding criteria and that volunteer activities are able to be measured against these criteria.

Attendees were reminded of the AGM which had been rescheduled to November 26 as it was not possible to have all the reports available earlier.
